

BECOMING NARCOLEPTIC
////////////////////the significant furniture

BECOMING NARCOLEPTIC

////////////////////the environment

The Significance of the Corner

A corner from the outside is an invisible reclusive space. On the inside, (even in the most dynamic of spaces) you find yourself alone, and left to your thoughts.

This is why we thought it would be the perfect setting for anybody to escape the momentum of any daily routine, and acknowledge their tiredness.

However, through the following designs it is more than just a joining of two walls that will encourage rest...

